Under no circumstances shall companies, groups, or individuals be eligible for commercial use of the buildings or grounds.

Section 4.04. Charges.

The Church Council may, from time to time, establish user fees or charges for various facilities, amenities, and programs provided by the Church.

ARTICLE 5. MEETINGS OF CHURCH MEMBERS

Draft of 16 June 2016
Section 3. Special Meetings

Special meetings may be called at any time by the Church Council, the Pastor or Active/Resident Members in accordance with Section 4 of this Article. The call of such meetings shall be done on an individual and personal basis by the President, Chair or by a majority of the Church Council or by a petition signed by 25 Active/Resident Members of the Church. A petition call for a special meeting shall state the purpose, and requested location/date. The Church Council shall set the actual date, within a reasonable time, for the special meeting and send out the Notice to the membership subject to Section 4 of this article.

Section 4. Notice Requirements for Membership Meetings

(A) General Requirements
Whenever members are legally required or permitted to take any action at a meeting, proper notice shall be given to members no less than 14 days prior to a meeting or more than 60 days before the meeting. Notification of membership meetings shall be given in any of the following manners which shall be deemed to be a reasonable method of calling a membership meeting:
- Distribution of written material to the congregation in attendance at Sunday services,
- Announcement in the meeting in the Church newsletter/official church communications,
- Oral announcements to the congregation at Sunday services; or
- Delivery by United States mail to each active member identified on the voting membership roll.

The above list shall not be interpreted as limiting such communications to those methods. All reasonable and normal methods of communication to the membership shall be used to provide such notice.

(B) Notice of Certain Agenda Items
Approval by the members of any of the following proposals is valid only if the notice specifies the general nature of the proposal: Article 4, Section 4 Voting Rights of Members, (A) (a) through (i).

(C) The Church is required to give notice only to each member entitled to vote at such meeting.

Section 5. Quorum

A minimum of 20% of the Active/Resident members present and voting at a meeting duly noticed and called shall constitute a quorum of the membership for the transaction of business. In the absence of a quorum at the Annual Meeting or a regularly scheduled Members’ Meeting, a majority of the members present in person and entitled to vote may adjourn the meeting from time to time and place to place until a quorum is obtained.

Special Meetings shall not be adjourned from time to time.

ARTICLE 6 - REGULATION OF INTERNAL AFFAIRS

The following provisions are included for the management of the business, and affairs of the Church, and for the further definition, limitation, and regulation of the powers of the Church and of its members and Church Council.

Section 1. By-Laws: Adoption, Alteration, Amendment or Repeal

(a) The By-Laws shall contain the definitions, rules and regulations necessary or proper for the implementation of the purposes of the Church and the provisions of the Constitution, especially as they relate to membership and the interpretation and administration of the rules for governance in keeping with the Church's purposes, as stated in Article 3.
The initial By-Laws shall be adopted by the Church membership, which may alter, amend, or repeal the By-Laws or adopt new By-Laws; provided, however, that all By-Laws shall be subject to alteration, amendment or repeal by the members.

The Church's Church Council may amend or repeal the Church's By-Laws except to the extent that:

a. The Constitution or the By-Laws reserve this power exclusively to the members; or
b. The members in adopting or amending particular By-Laws provide expressly that the Church Council may not amend or repeal that By-Law.

d. A By-Law adopted or amended by the members that fixes a greater quorum or voting requirement for the Church Council may provide that it may be amended or repealed only by a specified vote of either the members or the Church Council.

Section 2. Nominations

There shall be appointed by the Church Council a Nominating Committee whose duties shall be to provide nominations for all offices to be filled for the Church Council, Committees, and other leadership roles. The duties and requirements for such Nominating Committee shall be a part of the By-Laws.

A minimum of 20% of the Active/Resident members present and voting at a meeting duly noticed and called shall constitute a quorum of the membership for the transaction of business. In the absence of a quorum at the Annual Meeting or a regularly scheduled Members’ Meeting, a majority of the members present in person and entitled to vote may adjourn the meeting from time to time and place to place until a quorum is obtained.

Special Meetings shall not be adjourned from time to time.

Section 5.05. Membership List.

(B) The Membership List for a quorum shall include only members designated as "Active/Resident Members."

(C) To change from inactive/nonresident membership status to active/resident membership, requires the member to request the reinstatement of Active/Resident membership in writing to the Church Council and to make a public request for endorsement from the Church at a worship service and receive such endorsement. The Church Council grants records final approval of status changes in compliance with these By-Laws.

Section 5.06. Record Date.

The record date for determining the members entitled to notice of or to vote at a Members’ Meeting and to be counted for the quorum shall be no less than 14 days before the meeting.

Section 5.07. Voting Entitlement.

A member entitled to vote may vote only in person at the meeting and shall be entitled to one vote on each matter submitted to a vote at a meeting of members.

Section 5.08. Voting Procedures.

(A) The calling of a Senior Pastor will be voted on by Written Ballot.

(B) Unless requested by a member, voting will be by voice vote or show of hands. If a member requests a ballot vote, such vote must be approved by the majority of those members present at the meeting. Ballot votes shall be counted by no less than three (3) tellers appointed by the Chairman of the meeting.

(C) No proxy (appointed individual) may vote for a member and written proxies will not be accepted.

(D) Cumulative Voting is not recognized.

Section 5.09. Church's Acceptance of Votes.

The Church will accept votes from all Active/Resident Members recorded on the Membership List as individuals eligible to vote.

Section 5.10. Place of Meetings.

IAW Constitution Article 5, Section 1.

Meetings of the members shall be held at the principal office of the Church (Church building campus).
ARTICLE 7 - THE CHURCH COUNCIL

Section 1. Election of Council Members

(A) Council Members shall be elected at the Annual Meeting by Church members eligible to vote. Council Members shall be of legal age, and active members of the Church. It is further provided that no member of the Church shall be qualified to be a candidate for or to serve on the Church Council if the member, or the father, mother, brother, sister, spouse, son, daughter, son-in-law or daughter-in-law, sister-in-law or brother-in-law of such member is a full time employee of the Church, or is under any contract with, or regularly provides supplies or services to the Church for pay in excess of $3,000 per year during his/her term of office on the Church Council.

(B) At each Annual Meeting of the members, a quorum being present, those persons duly nominated shall be designated as candidates for each respective term or office to be filled and receiving the greatest number of votes for the respective term shall be the new Council Members. If the election of Council Members shall not be held on the day designated for any Annual Members Meeting or at any adjournment of such meeting, the Church Council shall cause the election to be held at a special meeting of the members soon thereafter as conveniently may be.

Section 2. Number of Council Members

There shall be six (6) Council Members.

Section 3. Term of Office for Council Members

One-third of the Church Council shall be elected annually only in the manner provided for in the Constitution and By-Laws. Each Council Member shall hold office for a term of three (3) years following his/her election, or until his/her death, resignation or removal. Notwithstanding this, the first election following this change will have two members elected for a three-year term and one member elected for a two-year term. In addition in 2003, two members will receive a three-year term and one will receive a one-year term, then in 2004, two members will receive three-year terms.

Section 4. Vacancies

Any vacancy on the Church Council, caused by death, resignation, removal, disqualification, or any other cause other than an increase in the number of directors, may be filled until the next annual election by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors then in office at any regular or special meeting of the Church Council. Vacancies shall be publicized to the membership as they occur. Vacancies shall be filled within two regular sessions of their occurrence.

Section 5. Church Council To Make Regulations for Voting at Annual Members Meeting

The Church Council may make such regulations as they deem advisable for any meeting of members, in regard to proof of membership in the Church, evidence of the right to vote, the appointment and duties of inspectors of votes, and such other matters concerning the conduct of the meeting as they shall deem fit. Such regulations shall be specified in the announcement of the meeting.

Section 5.11. Organization.

(A) At every meeting of the members, the President, or in the absence of the President, a person chosen by a majority vote of the members present and entitled to vote, shall act as chairman (moderator) of the meeting.

(B) At every meeting of the members, the Secretary, or in the absence of the Secretary, a person chosen by a majority vote of the members present and entitled to vote, shall act as secretary of the meeting.

(C) Parliamentary Authority is Robert's Rules of Order, latest edition.

Section 5.12. Business and Order of Business.

(A) A duly noticed and called meeting of the members shall have as its purpose to transact such business as may properly come before the Meeting or any adjournment or adjournments thereof.

(B) The order of business of all regular scheduled and special members' meeting shall be determined by the Chairman. However, such order of business may be changed by vote of a majority of the members present in person and entitled to vote at the meetings.

ARTICLE 6. CHURCH COUNCIL

Section 6.01. General Powers.

(A) The affairs of the Church shall be governed by the Church Council, who shall serve without compensation, and shall be answerable to the Church membership. The management shall be exercised by the Church Council as outlined in the Constitution, these By-Laws, and as expressly required by law.

(B) The Church Council shall have the authority to establish, adopt, enforce policies, rules and regulations with respect to use of Church property and with respect to such other areas of responsibilities assigned to the Church Council, by the Church's documents, by the Church membership and by law.

(C) Adopted policies, rules and regulations by the Church Council shall be reasonably published or distributed to the members.

Section 6.02. Number, Term of Office and Qualifications.

(A) As specified in the Constitution.
Section 6. The Church Council May Contract for Service

The Church Council may contract with any other qualified person for the performance, as its agent, to fulfill the powers, duties, or functions of the Church.

Section 7. Property - Real Estate

(A) Neither the Church Council, Deacons, Trustees, Staff, Church officers, Committees or a Church member shall obligate the Church to purchase any real estate, incur any debt for the purchase of real estate, sell any real estate of the Church, obligate the Church to sell any real estate, nor encumber any real estate of the Church without the majority approval of the Active Residents membership given in a duly noticed and called regular scheduled or special called business meeting with a quorum present.

(B) All property of the Church shall be held in the name of the Church.

(C) The Cemetery located on the Church property shall be under the care of the Trustees and governed by written policy.

Section 8. Church Council Meetings

(A) All meetings of the Church Council at which a quorum of council members are present shall be held in sessions open to the Church membership except for executive or closed meetings which may be held only for the following purposes and on the following conditions:

1. Personnel Matters: Personnel are defined as employees of the church whose pay is issued through the church bookkeeping system. Issues regarding employees are taken up in these sessions. These matters might include, but are not limited to: hiring, firing, raises, discipline and performance reviews.
2. Communications with legal counsel: Matters such as attorney-client privilege, pending litigation and settlement strategies may be discussed in this session. The legal counsel does not have to be present in any way during the meeting.
3. Pending or possible litigation: Strategy sessions or negotiations with respect to prospective litigation, litigation, or issuance of a detrimental effect on the litigating position of the Council.
4. Discussions which would result in Disclosure of information in violation of law.
5. To discuss the deployment of physical security strategies for the Church campus.
6. To discuss the reputation, character, physical condition or mental health, rather than professional competence, of an individual, or to discuss the discipline or dismissal of, or complaints or charges brought against an employee, staff member or individual.

The individual to be discussed in such executive session shall be notified in writing by the public body at least 48 hours prior to the proposed executive session; provided, however, that notification may be waived upon written agreement of the parties. This purpose is designed to protect the rights and reputation of individuals. Nevertheless, where the Council is discussing an employee evaluation, considering applicants for a position, or discussing the qualifications of any individual, these discussions should be held in open session to the extent that the discussion deals with issues other than the reputation, character, health, or any complaints or charges against the individual. An executive session called for this purpose triggers certain disclosure of information in violation of law.

(B) A council member elected by the membership to fill a vacancy created by death, removal, resignation or disqualification shall serve for the unexpired term created by the vacancy.

(C) A council member appointed by the Church Council to fill a vacancy created by death, removal, resignation or disqualification shall serve until the next Annual Meeting.

(D) A council member shall perform his duties as a Council member, including his duties as a member of any committee of the board upon which he may serve, in good faith, in a manner he reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the Church, and with such care as an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances. In performing his duties, a Council member shall be entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, in each case prepared or presented by:

1. One or more officers or employees of the Church whom the Council member reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented.
2. Counsel, public accountants or other persons as to matters which the Council member reasonably believes to be within such person's professional or expert competence, or
3. A committee of the Council upon which he does not serve, duly designated in accordance with a provision of the Constitution or the By-Laws, as to matters within its designated authority, which committee the Council member reasonably believes to merit confidence,

A person who so performs his duties shall have no liability by reason of being or having been a Council member but shall not be considered to be acting in good faith if he/she has knowledge concerning the matter in question that would cause such reliance to be unwarranted.

A Council member who is present at a meeting of the Church Council at which action on any Church matter is taken, shall be presumed to have assented to the action taken unless his/her dissent shall be entered in the minutes of the meeting or unless he/she shall file his/her written dissent to such action with the secretary of the Church immediately after the adjournment of the meeting. Such right to dissent shall not apply to a Council member who voted in favor of such action.

Section 6.03. Nominations.

Council members shall be nominated by the Church's Nominating Committee and presented to the Church for election at the Annual Meeting.

Section 6.04. Election.

(A) Council members shall be elected annually at the Annual Meeting.

(B) In any election of Council members, a quorum being present, the members among the candidates...
The individual who is the subject of the discussion has the right to be present, though he or she may choose not to attend. The individual who is the subject of the discussion may also choose to have the discussion in an open meeting, and that choice takes precedence over the right of the Council to go into executive session.

The Church Council shall meet at least once each quarter and at such other times as established by the Church Council. Minutes shall be taken at all meetings and kept in a file available for members to read upon request. All dates of meetings shall be posted at the Church's principal office with the planned agenda for the meeting.

Any Council member may resign at any time orally or in writing, by notifying the President Chair of the Church Council. Such resignation shall take effect at the time therein specified; and, unless otherwise specified, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Any Church Council member may be removed at any time, either with or without cause, by such vote as would suffice for his/her election given in person at a special meeting of the members called expressly for that purpose, at which a quorum shall be present.

Any vacancy on the Church Council caused by death, resignation, removal, disqualification, or any other cause other than an increase in the number of Council members, may be filled until the next annual election by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining Council members then in office, at any regular or special meeting of the Church Council.

At each meeting of the Church Council, the Chairman, or his/her absence the Vice Chairman, or in his/her absence the Council member chosen by the majority vote of the Council members present, shall preside. The Secretary shall act as Secretary of the meeting. In the Secretary's absence, or in the discretion of the chairman, any person appointed by him/her, shall act as Secretary of the meeting.

Regularly scheduled meetings require no notice. Special called meetings require notice be provided to all Council members. The method of notification may be any means of normal communications with reasonable expectation the Council member shall receive it prior to the meeting date. Notice of any adjourned or recessed meeting of the Council members need not be given.

Unless the Constitution or By-Laws provide otherwise, action required or permitted to be taken at a Council meeting may be taken without a meeting if the action is taken by all members of the Council. The action shall be evidenced by one or more written consents stating the action taken, signed by each Council member either before or after the action taken, and included in the minutes or filed with the Church records reflecting the action taken.
(B) Action taken under this section becomes effective when the last Council member signs the consent, unless the consent specifies a different effective date, in which event the action taken is effective as of the date specified therein provided the consent states the date of execution by each Council member.

(C) A consent signed under this section has the effect of a meeting vote and may be described as such in any document.

Section 6.11. Organizational Meeting.

(A) The Church Council may meet, without notice of such meeting, for the purpose of organization, the election of officers and the transaction of other business, on the same day as, at the place which, and as soon as practical after each annual election of Council members is held.

(B) Such meeting may be held at any other time or place specified in a notice given as hereinafter provided for special meetings of the Church Council, or in a waiver of notice thereof. [Note Section - Section 6.13 Special Meetings]

Section 6.12. Regular Meetings.

Regular meetings of the Church Council may be held at such times and places as may be fixed from time to time by action of the Church Council. Notice of any such meeting need not be given. Notice of regular meetings shall be published as part of the church calendar and advertised by the methods normally used for periodic church meetings.

Section 6.13. Special Meetings.

(A) Special meetings of the Church Council shall be held whenever called by the President Chair of the Church Council, or by any two or more Council members. Notice of each such meeting shall be mailed to each Council member addressed to him at his residence or usual place of business, at least five (5) days before the date on which the meeting is to be held; or such notice shall be delivered to him personally or by telephone not later than twenty-four (24) hours before the time at which the meeting is to be held.

(B) Each such notice shall state: the purpose, time, and place of the meeting. Notice of any adjourned or recessed meeting of the Church Council need not be given.

(C) Notice of special meetings of the Council and agenda shall be publicized to the membership by the methods normally used for periodic church meetings.

(A) A majority of the total number of Council members, as fixed by these By-laws, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

(B) Unless otherwise provided for in these By-Laws, the act of a majority of the Council members present at any meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Church Council.

(C) In the absence of a quorum, a majority of the Council members present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum be had.

(D) The Council members shall act only as a Council and the individual members shall have no power
(E) The Council members shall vote in person; proxy voting by the members is not permitted.

ARTICLE 7. DEACONS

Section 7.01. General Powers.

(A) The Deacons shall be appointed by the Church Council and are responsible for assisting the pastor in the spiritual ministry of the Church and the care of the congregation.

(B) The office of a deacon demands a high level of commitment, a mature knowledge of the faith, and dedication to fellowship and service. I Timothy 3:13 summarizes it best, “For those who have served well as Deacons obtain for themselves a high standing and great confidence in the faith that is in Christ Jesus.” That high standing does not mean a qualification for promotion in the church. Rather, it is the ability to speak with boldness from a faith and a testimony grounded in loyal and humble service to Christ and to His bride, the church. That great confidence does not give one the right to look down on any man, but the ability, borne out of a Christ-centered life, to look anyone in the eye and tell of Christ’s love in an appeal to their decision to trust Christ as you have trusted Him and live for Him.

(C) Charge to the deacons:

As a deacon, you will study the Scriptures, pray without ceasing, serve the needy, and model your life after the life of Christ. To symbolize your acceptance of this call, you will answer the following charge before God and these witnesses by saying, “I will.”

- God calls us to salvation and Christian living. Will you commit yourself to that kind of life? (response)
- God calls us to spread the good news of his love. Will you promise to tell others about the faith? (response)
- God calls us to teach the unsearchable riches of his Word. Will you consecrate your mind to study the Bible? (response)
- God calls us to minister to people wherever we find them in need. Will you dedicate yourself to helping the needy? (response)
- Will you pray for the direction of the Holy Spirit? (response)
- Will you be present and active in the Church? (response)
- Will you work with Church leaders to build up the congregation? (response)
- Will you strive to be an example to Christians and a bridge to non-Christians? (response)
- Will you promise to live in a way that will honor Christ, and, in the presence of this congregation, accept the office of deacon, and to fulfill the duties of this office? (response)

Section 7.02. Number, Term of Office and Qualifications.

(A) By July of each year, the Deacon Chair will confer with the Senior Pastor and recommend to Church Council the number of Deacon positions which should be approved for the following church year. The number approved shall be recorded in the Council minutes.

(B) There shall be 3 repeating Deacon tracks, each being a 3 year term. Each Deacon shall be assigned to a position within a specific track. Track A shall be considered to have started October 1, 2013. Track B shall be considered to have started October 1, 2014. Track C shall be considered to have started October 1, 2015. In the first year after approval of these amendments the Deacon Chair and the Pastor, with the concurrence of the Council, will designate which Deacons are in which positions/tracks in order to achieve a balanced rotation of approximately 1/3 of the Deacon positions each year.
Prior to appointment, each Deacon candidate shall be notified as to which Deacon track they are to be assigned. Record of each assignment shall be kept in the Deacon minutes and shall be reported to Church Council on a regular basis. Deacon positions are not tied to specific offices.

(C) After serving a full term as appointed, Deacons shall take a minimum one year sabbatical. After one year out of active Deacon service, a Deacon shall be eligible for nomination for reappointment to a Deacon position.

D. Qualifications

Individuals seeking appointment as a Deacon shall be a member of Effort Baptist Church, be an Active/Resident Member, be full of faith and wisdom, and be willing to assume the obligations of leadership and welfare of the membership. All Deacons must have been called at a Service of Ordination, or be presented at and participate in a scheduled ordination service.

Section 7.03. Nominations.

In July of each year the Deacon body shall publicize that they are seeking new Deacon candidates for the coming term. The congregation will be invited to submit names to the Deacon body. The Deacon Chair shall combine the names of prospective Deacons submitted by the Deacon Body with those submitted by the Congregation for presentation to the Church Council for approval. Once approved by Church Council, the Deacons will approach prospective members to obtain agreement to serve. The Deacon Body shall then submit names of those agreeing to serve to Church Council for appointment.

Section 7.04. Resignation.

Any Deacon may resign at any time orally or in writing, by notifying the President Chair or the Secretary. Such resignation shall take effect at the time therein specified; and, unless otherwise specified, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 7.05. Removal.

Any Deacon may be removed at any time, either with or without cause, by unanimous vote by those Council members present at a special meeting called expressly for that purpose, at which a quorum shall be present.

Section 7.06. Vacancy.

Any vacancy of a Deacon position caused by death, resignation, removal, disqualification, or any other cause, may be filled to serve the remainder of the position’s term by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Council members at a duly called meeting. Deacons filling a position for less than 1.5 years would not be subject to the sabbatical requirement of 7.02(C).
Section 7.07. Quorum and Manner of Acting.

(A) A majority of the total number of Deacons, as fixed by these By-Laws, shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

(B) Unless otherwise provided for in these By-Laws, the act of a majority of the Deacons present at any meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Deacons.

(C) In the absence of a quorum, a majority of the Deacons present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum be had.

(D) The Deacons shall act only as a group and the individual Deacons shall have no power as such.

(E) The Deacons shall vote in person; proxy voting by the Deacons is not permitted.

(F) At the beginning of each year, the Deacons shall elect from among their number a Chair and a Secretary to serve a term of one year. Such election shall be reported to the Church Council.

Section 7.08. Compensation of Deacons.

No person serving as a Deacon shall receive compensation for such service.

ARTICLE 8. TRUSTEES

Section 8.01. General Powers.

(A) The Trustees shall be allowed whatever powers are allowed to Trustees under the Code of Virginia.

(B) They shall be the legal representatives of the Church in matters concerning the Church property; and title to the Church property shall be vested in them for the benefit of the Church, subject to the direction of the Church.

(C) Nothing herein shall be deemed to charge any Trustee with any personal financial liability for acts done on behalf of the Church. Any liability for such acts, over and beyond that provided by insurance, will be assumed by the Church and the Trustee will be saved harmless.

(D) Signatures of Trustees on any legal document shall require a majority of the number of Trustees at the time fixed by these By-Laws.

Section 8.02. Number, Term of Office and Qualifications.

(A) Number of Trustees
The Trustees shall be not less than three and not more than five persons.

(B) Term of Office
The term of office is for one year which shall be from October 1 to September 30.

(C) Qualifications
Trustees must be of legal age and an Active/Resident Member of the Church and may not serve concurrently on the Church Council.
Section 8.03. Resignation.

(A) Any Trustee may resign at any time, orally, or in writing, by notifying the Chairman of the Committee or the Church Clerk.

(B) Such resignation shall take effect at the time therein specified; and, unless otherwise specified, the acceptance of such resignation shall not be necessary to make it effective.

Section 8.04. Removal.

Any Trustee may be removed at any time, either with or without cause, by the Church.

Section 8.05. Vacancy.

Any vacancy on the Trustees, caused by death, resignation, removal, disqualification, or any other cause, may be filled until the next annual election by the affirmative vote of a majority of the Church Council, at any regular or special meeting of the Church Council.

Section 8.06. Quorum and Manner of Acting.

(A) A majority of the number of Trustees at the time fixed by these By-Laws shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

(B) The act of a majority of the Trustees present at any meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Trustees.

(C) In the absence of a quorum, a majority of the Trustees present may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum be had.

(D) The Trustees shall act only as a group and the individual Trustees shall have no power as such.

Section 8.07. Compensation of Trustees.

No person serving as a Trustee shall receive compensation for such services.

ARTICLE 9. TREASURER

Section 9.01. Treasurer.

(A) The Treasurer shall be elected by the Church Council for a term of one calendar year and may be elected to successive terms. The Treasurer shall be ex-officio member of the Finance Committee.

(B) Except as may otherwise be specifically provided by the Church Council, the Treasurer shall be responsible for, all funds and securities which will include the adequacy of procedures used to receive money and receipt for money paid to the Church from any source whatsoever. See that deposits of all such monies in the name of the Church be made in such banks, trust companies, or other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of these By-Laws. Against proper vouchers cause such funds to be disbursed pursuant to guidelines or special directions from the Finance Committee, or as authorized by the Church budget on the authorized depositories of the Church. Regularly cause to be entered in books to be kept by him/her or under his/her direction, full and adequate accounts of all money received and paid by him/her for accounts of the Church; in general perform all the duties incident to the office of Treasurer.

(C) The administrative duties will meet the standard of generally accepted accounting principles.

ARTICLE 10. COMMITTEES

Section 10.01. Committees.

(A) Two types of committees shall be appointed by the Church Council: These are “standing committees” and “special committees.” Members of committees shall be appointed annually by the Church Council. Church officers and all committee members shall be expected to exhibit Christian moral behavior and conduct.

(B) Standing Committees shall be: Building and Grounds, Finance, Nominating, Personnel, and Missions.

(C) The composition, specific powers and duties of each standing committee shall be delineated in a charter approved by the Church Council and kept in the Church Policies Manual.

(D) Special committees may be appointed by the Church Council to perform some special task, secure more information, investigate a situation, and bring back a report or a recommendation to the Church or the Church Council. These shall be considered temporary committees whose term is completed when they have completed their mission, as determined by the Church Council.

(E) Neither the designation of any such committee, the delegation thereto of authority, nor action by such committee pursuant to such authority shall alone constitute compliance by any member of the Church Council, not a member of the committee in question, with his/her responsibility to act in good faith, in a manner he/she reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the Church, and with such care as an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances.

(F) Each committee must have a majority of its membership composed of members of the Church.

(G) A majority of the total number of committee members for each committee fixed by these By-Laws, or the Committee's respective charter, shall constitute a quorum for the conduct of committee business. Members of any such committee shall act only as a committee and the individual members shall have no power as such.

(H) All committees shall keep meeting minutes showing all votes or actions by members with copies provided to the Church Council.

(I) The Church Council shall have the authority at any time to fill vacancies.

(J) Each committee shall elect its own chairperson and secretary. Each chairman shall be a member of the Church.

(K) No person serving on a committee receives compensation for such service.

ARTICLE 11. RECORDS AND REPORTS
ARTICLE 8 - ACCESS TO CHURCH RECORDS

(A) The Church shall keep as permanent records minutes of all meetings of its Members Meetings and Church Council, a record of all actions taken by the Church Council without a meeting, and a record of all actions taken by a committee of the Church Council in place of the Church Council on behalf of the Church.

(B) The Church shall maintain its records in written form or in another form capable of conversion into written form within a reasonable time.

(C) The Church shall keep detailed records of receipts and expenditures affecting the operation and administration of the Church.

(D) All books and records kept by or on behalf of the Church, including, but not limited to the Church's membership list and addresses, which shall not be used for the purposes of commercial solicitation, shall be available for examination and copying by a member or his/her authorized agent. This right of examination shall exist without reference to the duration of membership and may be exercised only during reasonable business hours or at a mutually convenient time and location and upon no less than five days' written notice.

(E) Books and records kept by or on behalf of the Church may be withheld from inspection and copying to the extent that they concern:
   1. Personnel matters or a person's medical records;
   2. Communications with legal counsel or attorney work product or pending litigation;
   3. Transactions currently in negotiation and agreements containing confidentiality requirements;
   4. Pastor's or ministers' confidential counseling notes and confidential working papers;

Section 11.01. Church Records.

The Church shall keep detailed records of its operation and administration including income received and expenses incurred; and including as permanent records: (1) minutes of all meetings of its members, (2) a permanent record of all actions taken by the Church members or Church Council in the Church's behalf or as the agent of the Church, (3) annual financial reports, and (4) a policy manual.

Section 11.02. Access to Church Records.

As specified in the Constitution.

(A) Subject to the provisions of subsection (B) of this section, all books and records kept by or on behalf of the Church shall be available for examination and copying by a member.

(B) Books and records kept by or on behalf of the Church may be withheld from inspection to the extent that they concern: (1) Personnel records; (2) An individual's medical records; and (3) any legal documents identified as privileged by the Church's attorney.

(C) The Church may impose and collect a charge, reflecting the actual costs of materials and labor, prior to providing copies of any books and records to a member under this section.

(D) Non members of the Church have no authority or right to access Church records unless expressly provided for by these By-Laws or by law.

Section 11.03. Annual Report.

An annual report shall be provided at the Annual Meeting. Copies shall be made available to the members.

Section 11.04. Definition of Year.

(A) Fiscal Year:
The fiscal year of the Church shall commence the first day of October and shall end on the last day of September in each year.

(B) Church Year:
The Church year shall commence the first day of September and shall end on the last day of August in each year.

ARTICLE 12. CONTRACTS, CHECKS, DRAFTS, BANK ACCOUNTS, AND FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Section 12.01. Responsibility.

The Church Council shall insure the proper preparation and integrity of the consolidated financial statements of the Church. The financial statements shall be prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting standards.

Section 12.02. Execution of Contracts and Other Documents.

The Church Council, except as law or these By-Laws otherwise require, may authorize any officer or officers, agent or agents, in the name of and on behalf of the Church to enter into any contract or execute any deed or other instrument. Such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.
5. Contribution Statements for Contributors with only the individual contributor being provided his/her record;
6. Disclosure of information in violation of law; or
7. Meeting minutes or other records of an executive session of the Church Council held in accordance with the Church By-Laws.

(F) The Church may impose and collect a charge, reflecting the actual costs of materials and labor, prior to providing copies of any books and records to a member under this section.

ARTICLE 9 - INDEMNIFICATION

(A) Except as and to the extent hereinafter provided, the Church shall indemnify each person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative (other than an action by or in the right of the Church), by reason of the fact that he is or was a Council Member or officer of the Church or duly authorized agent of the Church, or is or was serving at the request of the Church against the following: expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him/her in connection with such action, suit or proceeding.

(B) Except as and to the extent hereinafter provided, the Church shall indemnify each person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action or suit by or in the right of the Church to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a Council Member or officer of the Church, or is or was serving at the request of the Church as an agent against the following: expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and reasonably incurred by him/her.

Section 12.03. Checks, Drafts, Money Orders.
All checks, drafts, and other orders for payment of money out of funds of the Church shall be signed on behalf of the Church in such manner as shall from time to time be determined by resolution of the Church Council and reflected in minutes of the meeting.

Section 12.04. Deposits.
The funds of the Church not otherwise employed shall be deposited from time to time to the order of the Church in such banks, trust companies or other depositories as the Church Council may from time to time select.

Section 12.05. Annual Audit.
The Church Council shall cause an annual audit of the accounts of the Church to be performed by a Certified Public Accountant.
in connection with defense or settlement of such action or suit.

(C) No such person shall be entitled to be thus indemnified: (i) in relation to any such action, suit or proceeding referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b) above, unless he acted in good faith and in the manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the Church or (ii) as to any action, suit or proceeding referred to in paragraph (b) above, if he shall have been adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his/her duties to the Church, unless and only to the extent that the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine that despite the adjudication of liability such person is reasonably entitled to indemnity.

(D) Any indemnification under the paragraphs above (unless ordered by a court) shall be made by the Church only as authorized in each specific case, upon a determination that indemnification of the Council Member, officer, employee or agent, as the case may be, is proper in the circumstances because such person has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth above. Such determination is made by (i) the Church Council, by a majority vote of a quorum of disinterested Council Members or (ii) if such a quorum is not obtainable, or even if obtainable a quorum of disinterested Council Members so directs, by independent legal counsel which may be counsel customarily retained by the Church in a written opinion, or (iii) by the members. In making any such determination, the Council Members shall be entitled to, and shall be fully protected if they rely as to all questions of law upon, and cause the Church to act in accordance with, the written opinion of independent counsel selected for such purpose by, or in a manner designated by the Church Council (which may be counsel customarily retained by the Church), sitting whether such settlement is in the best interests of the Church and whether such indemnification is lawful and is authorized by this Constitution.

(F) Every reference in this Article to a Council Member or officer or agent shall include his/her heirs and personal representatives. The right to indemnification provided by this Article is in addition to, and is not exclusive of; any other rights of reimbursement or indemnification to which the persons indemnified hereby may be entitled.

ARTICLE 10 - AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION

The Constitution may be amended, added to, or repealed at any Annual Meeting of the Church at which a quorum is present and by a two-thirds majority vote of the members present, provided that a Notice of the proposed amendment shall be given in the Notice of the Meeting. Such amendment shall clearly show the existing wording and the recommended changes upon which the members shall vote. Such recommendation for amendment shall come from the Church Council to the membership.

ARTICLE 13. AMENDMENTS

Section 13.01. By the Church Council.

The initial By-Laws shall be approved by the Church membership. The Church Council may alter, amend, or repeal the By-Laws or adopt new By-Laws; provided however, that all By-Laws shall be subject to alteration, amendment or repeal by the Church members.

Section 13.02. By the Members of the Church.

At any regular or special business meeting of the Church, wherein a quorum is present, the Church By-Laws may be amended, altered, or repealed by a two-thirds affirmative vote of the members present and entitled to vote.

The members may reserve the power exclusively to amend, alter, or repeal certain By-Laws or to fix a greater quorum or voting requirements for the Church Council to amend or repeal a By-Law under the Council's care. [Refer: Section 10.05 of these By-Laws]
